

Welcome to myBühler.

Easy to do Business with Bühler.

The new “myBühler” customer portal offers you easy access to all details of your machines and parts.

As the impact of the internet on everyday life increases and 24/7 access to information becomes more important, we at Bühler also strive to provide you with up-to-date information and services in our new customer portal.

myBühler provides you with an overview of your Bühler equipment, including documents such as user manuals and spare part catalogues. This makes it easy to find the parts you are looking for.

In addition, your purchasing process is streamlined thanks to direct access to price and material information and the possibility of directly creating quotations and orders online.
